Composed of Davide Mazza on vocals and Riccardo Mattioli on keyboards, Blank is Italy's latest export to the industrial dance realm. Drawing inspiration from early Italian acts such as Pankow and Templebeat as well as modern dance legends Paul Oakenfold and Tiesto, Blank caught the attention of the electro underground with their self-produced demos released in 2000 and 2001. Their music is for the dancefloor and for the heart, combining thought-provoking lyrics with an overdose of energy to create new, fresh, and exciting dance music.
