It keeps the Buzz alive !!!

Just slide the cover in...
and clip on the CD !!!

Trophy CD Stand - Patent Pending

Proudly display your CD and CD cover in order to capture and preserve a moment in history.

On another note, we had to say that, both the "Trophy CD Stand" and the upgrade, "Trophy CD Stand Clock", are for those who wish to commemorate their CD and give it out to their friends, family and fans as a way of saying Thank You. It is less expensive than framing a CD. The stands are also perfect for bands looking to add something really unique to their catalog of merchandise.

Here's a clever alternative to framing a CD and hanging it on your wall. It's a product that lets you display your CD, along with your CD cover, like a trophy. Now you can show off your CD by displaying it on your bookcase, dresser, mantle, or desktop.

Trophy CD Stands

Play it or Display it.

For fans wanting to showcase an autographed CD.

For artists wanting to commemorate their work.

When an artist completes a CD project, it is important for that artist to take at least one CD and display it in order to celebrate his or her accomplishment. When a music fan gets an autographed CD, that CD is no longer just a CD, it is a piece of the fan's history and there should be an easy way to display that CD without having to frame it. Because of this, we created CDstands.com

- Patent Pending

Why would someone want a Trophy CD Stand?

CD

Autographed

Display It

Your CD was just Autographed... So why not display it for people to see !!!

As Simple As...

- 1 Ok, you have your favorite band's CD...
- 2 You meet the band and they sign your CD... COOL !!!! -- An autograph !!!
- 3 Hmm... So now what are you going to do with it? You don't want to store your autographed CD with the rest of your CDs. If you frame it, you'll never be able to listen to the CD. You want to show it off and still be able to play the CD whenever you want.

With our Trophy CD Stand, if you're not playing the CD, you're displaying the CD. It's perfect for your bookcase, desk at work, fireplace mantel,... you name it...

RE: Media Coverage

03/28/03

Dear Mr. Azriel;

Please find enclosed one of our Trophy CD Stands. I would like to thank you for requesting a sample. We are only doing press on the CD Stand so we are not sending clocks out to press at this time.

As mentioned in my email, our main hurdle right now is getting people to know about this little invention of ours. We would greatly appreciate a write-up, a review, a product spot light, a story, or just a simple mention of our product to your readers.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Kind Regards

CDSTANDS.COM ANNOUNCES AN ALTERNATIVE TO FRAMING A CD AND HANGING IT ON THE WALL

Here's a clever alternative to framing a CD and hanging it on your wall. It's a product that lets you display your CD, along with your CD cover, like a trophy. Now you can show off your CD by displaying it on your bookcase, dresser, mantle, or desktop

MARCH 20 2003
For Immediate Release

CDstands.com, a division of CDreview.com, is planning to revolutionize the way that CD collectors, music fans, artists, and other people in the music world display a favorite CD by releasing a clever little product called the TROPHY CD STAND.

The TROPHY CD STAND offers an alternative to framing a CD and hanging it on the wall. It's a product that displays a CD, along with the CD cover, like a trophy. This easily allows anyone to show off a CD by displaying it on a bookcase, dresser, mantle, or desktop.

Scott Clark, President of CDstands.com, stated: "When an artist completes a CD project, it is important for that artist to take at least one CD and display it in order to celebrate his or her accomplishment. When a music fan gets an autographed CD, that CD is no longer just a CD, it is a piece of the fan's history and there should be an easy way to display that CD without having to frame it. Because of this, we created CDstands.com".

The TROPHY CD STAND is perfect for an artist, record store, promoter, or label doing a CD release party or an autograph session. Selling Trophy CD Stands to fans is not only an easy way to generate income, it's also a smart way to make sure that a specific CD is not just put away with other CDs. Here a CD will be displayed out in the open for people to see and talk about so it keeps the buzz live.

The TROPHY CD STAND can also be used to turn heads as a promotional item or reward those that have worked on a CD project.

CDstands.com is based in Hamilton, New Jersey. The company's product is available through its website at www.cdstands.com. For phone orders, call 609-689-1711.

Thanks for the quick reply. I hope this gets here fast so I may squeeze it into the next issue, which will be out in May. As long as it's here by the first week of April, we'll be okay :)

1 sample of the trophy, and 1 of the clock should be enough for a review. Let me know if you're interested in advertising as well. I'll knock off 15% for being so kind to us ;)

Thanks Again,
 Azriel
