Enclosed is your promo copy of The Indie Bible 4th Edition. If you could possibly do a review of the Indie Bible in an upcoming edition of your magazine, that would be great! I think it's something that many of your readers would find beneficial.

For over four years now, The Indie Bible has been published with the immediate need of the artist in mind, which is to get their music heard, and moving towards greater exposure as soon as possible. The contacts listed are those that will listen to Independent music, and if they like it, will present it to their readers and listeners.

The 4th Edition contains over 8000 valuable contacts including:

- 3500 publications that will REVIEW Independent CDs
- 2900 radio stations that will PLAY Independent music
- 350 online vendors and services that will help bands to SELL their music
- 400 sites where bands can UPLOAD their MP3s
- 500 general resources that will help artists in the PROMOTION of their music

There are also 39 articles that cover key areas of the music business. This includes Copyright Law, Marketing Techniques, How to Submit Music to Radio Stations, How to Submit Music for Review, How to Create a Press Kit etc. These articles were written by many of the top authors in the music business, including Daylle Deanna Schwartz, Jeri Goldstein, Tim Sweeney, Harriet Schock, Diane Rapaport and Janet Fisher.

The Indie Bible has contacts for ALL genres of music. New to this edition are Classical, Latin and Film Music sections. There is also a new HUGE Local Music section. This will enable artists and songwriters to utilize any resources that are available to them locally.

As was the case with the 3rd Edition, the cover for the 4th Edition was designed by the world famous poster artist Bob Masse (www.bmasse.com).

Your support is appreciated!
